

ADULT MIRANDA RIGHTS	CHILD MIRANDA RIGHTS
	You are under arrest. Before we ask you any questions you must understand what your rights are.
You have the right to remain silent	You have the right to remain silent. You are not required to say anything to us at any time or to answer any questions.
Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law.	Anything you say can be used against you in Court.
You have the right to talk to a lawyer and have him present with you while you are being questioned.	You have the right to talk to a lawyer (or your parent) before we question you and to have them with you during questioning.
If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer, one will be appointed to represent you before any questioning if you wish.	If you cannot afford a lawyer and want one, a lawyer will be provided for you.
You can decide at any time to exercise these rights and not answer any questions or make any statements	If you want to answer questions now without a lawyer (or parent) present, you will still have the right to stop answering at any time. You also have the right to stop answer at any time until you talk to a lawyer.
Waiver: Do you understand each of these rights I have explained to you? Having these rights in mind, do you wish to talk to us now?	Waiver: Do you understand each of these rights I have explained to you? Having these rights in mind, do you wish to talk to us now?